Travel Information

The Daytona Beach campus of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University (ERAU) is on U.S. Interstate 95, and about 50 miles northeast of Orlando. The nearest airports are Daytona Beach International Airport, Orlando International Airport, and Orlando Sanford International Airport. When making travel plans, please consider the time and expense required to travel from Orlando to Daytona Beach and back, and the fact that the two convention hotels offer free airport shuttles.

- ERAU Website: <http://www.erau.edu>
- Directions to ERAU and Campus Map: <http://daytonabeach.erau.edu/about/directions/index.html>: The convention will begin Thursday evening, April 9, in the John Paul Riddle Student Center (#12 on the map). Most events will occur in the Jim W. Henderson Administration and Welcome Center (#3 on the map).
- Parking on campus is available for visitors. If you need to park on campus, please indicate this on the registration form, and you will be given more information.
